

06.09.2016

A B-52 leads a formation including two Polish F-16s (front right), four US F-16s (back right), two German Typhoons (front left) and four Swedish Gripens (back left) on a mission during BALTOPS 2016, a multinational exercise designed to train participants in maritime interdiction, anti-subsurface warfare, amphibious operations, and air defense in a joint environment. Fifteen NATO nations and two partner nations participated in this year's exercise.

