Reinvigorating the Nuclear Enterprise

“ . . . if our nuclear deterrent is sufficiently impressive and persuasive, the weapons themselves will not have to be employed in combat.”

- Schlesinger Report, Dec 08

Strategy

- Improve/enhance nuclear surety/security -- Restore American confidence in nuclear missions
 - Bolster current operations, enhance nuclear workforce, modernize weapon systems
- Establish AF Global Strike Command
 - Realigns B-52s, B-2s, and ICBMs under one major command to enhance the nuclear focus

Benefits

- Funds 76 B-52s ($173M) -- Flying ops and aircraft mods -- Enables dedicated Nuclear Squadron
- MM III revitalization ($140M) -- Addresses known ICBM shortfalls in ops capability
- Nuclear sustainment ($51M) -- Improves ICBM ops availability/enhances nuclear weapons ctr
- Weapon storage area ($73M) -- Increases manpower and operational support
- EMP hardening ($66M) -- Funds hardening of critical systems and facilities
- End strength growth (2.5K)

Integrity - Service - Excellence

Combat Air Forces Restructure

U.S. AIR FORCE

Strategy

- Size current fighter fleet to meet mid-term strategic environment -- Bridges to 5th Gen force
 - Develops smaller yet more lethal, flexible and capable force
 - Refocuses manpower and dollars to capabilities critical to joint operations
- Accelerate legacy fighter drawdown -- Roughly 250 aircraft retirements / 32K flying hours

Benefits

- Funds ($355M):
- Fighter/Bomber modifications -- A-10, F-15, F-16, B-1, B-2, B-52
- Preferred munitions -- SDB, JDAM, AIM-120, AIM-9
- Joint enablers -- TACP/SOF Mobile Comm, Aggressors Advanced Capability Pods
- Realigns manpower (4K)
- Supports additional B-52 force structure and ISR/PED growth

“All In” for Today’s Joint Fight

U.S. AIR FORCE

“The United States Air Force is ‘All In’ and whatever is required of us as the nation's Air Force we will do and we will do it well.”

- AF Chief of Staff General Norton A. Schwartz

Strategy

- Maintain/improve our hybrid approach to IW -- Operating across full spectrum of warfare
- Capitalize on the flexibility and adaptability of air, space and cyberspace
- Streamline/integrate building partnership capacity activities

Benefits

- Rebalances AF end strength to support IW -- PED, MQ-1, MQ-9, MC-12
- Institutionalizes Air Advisor School and enhances C2 to support joint fight ($37M)
- Continues recapitalization of MC-130J fleet ($412M)
- Funds 24 MQ-9s ($489M) -- Supports SecDef ISR capability goals -- 43 UAS CAPs in FY10

Integrity - Service - Excellence
